

1.94

Ad472 Pro

U. S. Department of Agriculture
Agricultural Adjustment Administration
Program Study and Discussion Section

LIBRARY
RECEIVED
★ MAR 17 1939 ★
S. Department of Agriculture

Program - School for the Southern Great Plains Region.

(To be held at Amarillo and Hereford, Texas, April 3 to 6, inclusive).

What is a Desirable National Agricultural Program?

First Day. Backgrounds.

1. What Can Philosophy Contribute to a Better Understanding of the Present Situation?
- Hartley B. Alexander (Philosophy),
Scripps College, California.
2. General Social and Economic Background of the Present Situation.
- Carl F. Taeusch, Program Study and Discussion Section, U.S.D.A.
3. Deserts on the March.
- Paul B. Sears, Department of Botany,
Oberlin College, Ohio.

Second Day. The Place of Government in Modern Society.

1. Individualism, Democracy and Social Control. - Hartley B. Alexander.
2. The Relation of Government to Social and Economic Affairs. - Carl F. Taeusch.
3. The Problem of Continuing a Program of Agricultural Adjustment.
- Wm. Peterson, Director of Extension,
Utah State College.

Third Day. Man and Nature.

1. Environment and Life in the Great Plains. - Reginald Fisher, Director of the New Mexico State Museum.
2. Rainfall and Water Tables. - Wm. Peterson
3. What Determines a Human Culture? - Paul B. Sears

Fourth Day. Problems of Social Adjustment and Administration.

1. Improving Our Land Tenure System. - L. C. Gray, Bureau of Agricultural Economics, U.S.D.A.
2. Experimental Ecology in the Public Service. - Reginald Fisher.
3. What Shall We Do?
- R. H. Montgomery, Department of Economics, University of Texas.

11